TMC invites reader submissions

TMC invites submissions of articles relating to medical cannabis law, business, culture, news and announcements. Please write clear, compelling third person reporting, in standard news format. Include up to two sentences for by-line.

Subject specific articles and opinion pieces should not exceed 750 words.

We prefer to receive a 250 word email pitch for all features and articles exceeding 750 words. Please limit the pitch to 250 words.

TMC retains full editorial control to edit and modify submissions, and we reserve our right to decline to print any submission at any time at our sole discretion.

Direct input and communication with our readers will ensure that TMC covers the happenings that are important to our community. This publication is owned and operated by patients and caregivers who work tirelessly to make sure our community has access to reliable information and resources.

This invitation is also extended to all state officials, law enforcement, clergy, and opposition groups.

Please send submissions of no more than 500 words and pitches up to 250 to:
submissions@themidwestcultivator.com

Next Issue Deadline: March 15
